

Conditions of participation and privacy policy for the Hacktoberfest 2020 event

These conditions apply to the Hacktoberfest 2020 event (henceforth referred to as “the event”), organized by Datenanfragen.de e. V., Schreinerweg 6, 38126 Braunschweig, Germany (henceforth referred to as “the organizer”).

Conditions of participation

Participating in the event is free of charge. Any participation is governed by these conditions.

The event is not related to DigitalOcean, LLC in any way and DigitalOcean, LLC is neither organizing nor supporting this event.

Duration

The event takes place from October 1, 2020 at 00:01 AM UTC to November 1, 2020 at 11:59 PM UTC (event period). Registration is open until November 4, 2020 at 11:59 PM UTC (registration deadline).

Participation

In order to participate, you have to register. If you want to participate using GitHub (<https://github.com/>), you need to register through the form on the organizer’s website (<https://www.datarequests.org/blog/hacktoberfest-2020>) and specify the following elements: your GitHub username, your email address, your agreement to these terms, and your agreement to the use of GitHub. If you want to participate without using GitHub, you need to register via email to hacktoberfest@datenanfragen.de. The email has to indicate your desire to participate in the event and your agreement to these terms. In addition, you have to include at least one Git patch.

The organizer will confirm your registration via email. Your registration only becomes valid after it has been confirmed.

We will not accept any registrations after the registration deadline.

In order to receive the rewards mentioned in the “Rewards” sections, you need to submit at least one accepted pull request via GitHub or at least one accepted patch via email for one of the repositories mentioned in the “Qualified repositories” section and during the event period. The organizer’s board decides on the acceptance of submissions at its own discretion.

Eligibility

All natural persons who have reached the age of 14 are eligible to participate. The participation is not limited to members of the organizer and independent of the purchase of goods or services. Members of the organizer’s board and their relatives are excluded from participating.

The participation of participants whose legal capacity is restricted requires the consent of their legal guardians.

The organizer reserves the right to exclude participants from the promotion at its own discretion if there are justified reasons, such as:

- in the case of a violation of these conditions
- in the case of false or misleading information
- in the case of submissions of dishonest pull requests or patches

Rewards

The first 100 participants who meet the requirements set out in the “Participation” section will receive a pack of at least three stickers.

In addition, 10 t-shirts will be awarded for the best pull requests and patches. The selection will be made at the discretion of the organizer’s board.

Participants who have won one or more prizes will be notified promptly by the organizer after the registration deadline and asked to provide a shipping address. If no shipping address is provided by December 31, 2020 at 11:59 PM UTC, any potential prizes are void.

Participants are responsible for providing a correct shipping address in international format. Prizes that could not be delivered will not be shipped again.

Prizes will only be delivered to participants or, in the case of underage participants, to their legal representatives. The prizes cannot be exchanged, paid out in cash or picked up by the participants themselves. The organizer will bear the costs of shipping the prizes. The participants themselves are responsible for any possible taxation or customs clearance of the prizes.

Qualified repositories

Pull requests and patches to the following GitHub repositories qualify as valid contributions for this event:

- <https://github.com/datenanfragen/website>
- <https://github.com/datenanfragen/data>
- <https://github.com/datenanfragen/backend>
- <https://github.com/datenanfragen/company-json-generator>
- <https://github.com/datenanfragen/letter-generator>
- <https://github.com/datenanfragen/media>
- <https://github.com/datenanfragen/locate-contacts-addon>
- <https://github.com/zner0L/postcss-fonticons>

Upon request, the organizer may also permit further repositories.

Early termination

The organizer explicitly reserves the right to terminate the event early. In this case the termination will be announced on the organizer's website (<https://www.datarequests.org/blog/hacktoberfest-2020>).

Applicable law

Questions or complaints in connection with the event must be addressed to the organiser. The event is subject exclusively to the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany. Legal recourse is excluded.

Privacy policy

For your participation in this event we need to process your personal data. However, we have designed the event to collect as little data as possible. We also limit the processing of your data as far as possible to the necessary minimum.

Scope

This privacy policy only applies to the Datenanfragen.de e. V. Hacktoberfest 2020 event. There is a separate privacy policy (<https://www.datarequests.org/privacy/>) for the rest of the association's activities.

Controller and contact information

The controller as defined in Art. 4(7) GDPR for the services mentioned under “Scope” is:

Profiling

We do not use profiling or any other type of automated decision making.

Collected data

Registration for the event

In order to participate in the event, you have to register. We need to process that data.

- Affected data: email address, GitHub user name (optional), date and time of the registration, language

- Lawful basis: By registering, you consent to us processing this data in accordance with Art. 6(1) lit. a GDPR. You can revoke this consent at any time.
- Duration of storage: until December 31, 2020
- Data disclosure: To send the registration confirmation, we use Mailjet. Mailjet is run by Mailjet SAS, 13-13 bis rue de l'Aubrac, 75012 Paris, France. For more information on how Mailjet processes your data, please refer to their privacy policy (<https://www.mailjet.com/privacy-policy/>).

Shipping of the rewards

In order to send you your rewards, we need your address. We will ask for that after the event period (only if you will receive any rewards, of course).

- Affected data: name, shipping address
- Lawful basis: By providing us your shipping address, you consent to us processing this data in accordance with Art. 6(1) lit. a GDPR. You can revoke this consent at any time.
- Duration of storage: only until the rewards have been sent out, afterwards the data will be deleted immediately
- Data disclosure: In order to ship your rewards, we will need to provide your name and shipping address to Deutsche Post AG, Charles-de-Gaulle-Straße 20, 53113 Bonn, Germany. Please note their privacy policy (<https://www.deutschepost.de/en/f/footer/data-protection-and-cookies.html>).

External services

In order to participate in this event, we recommend using the platform GitHub, run by GitHub, Inc., 88 Colin P. Kelly Jr. St., San Francisco, CA 94107, United States of America and its European subsidiary GitHub BV, Vijzelstraat 68 – 72, 1017 HL Amsterdam, Netherlands.

However, the organizer cannot guarantee the same level of data protection as in the EU for this. There is a risk that your data may be subject to access by US authorities, and you may not have effective legal remedies. For information on how GitHub processes your data, please see their privacy policy (<https://help.github.com/en/articles/github-privacy-statement>).

Participating in the event is also possible without using GitHub by sending patches directly via email. We will then submit these patches—without any personal data concerning you—to GitHub ourselves.

Your rights

The GDPR grants you comprehensive rights with regard to data protection. We are strongly convinced that the right to data protection is a fundamental right and therefore we fully stand behind these rights. You can exercise these rights at any time in an informal manner using the contact details given in the “Controller and contact information” section.

We of course invite you to use our generator (<https://www.datarequests.org/generator>) which will assist you with writing requests.

Right to data access

According to Art. 15 GDPR, you first of all have the right to request confirmation as to whether we store personal data on you. If so, you may request a copy of this information and are furthermore entitled to the following information:

- the purposes of the processing;
- the categories of personal data concerned;
- the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, in particular recipients in third countries or international organisations;
- where possible, the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored, or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period;
- the existence of the right to request from the controller rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the data subject or to object to such processing;
- the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority;
- where the personal data are not collected from the data subject, any available information as to their source;
- the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, referred to in Article 22(1) and (4) and, at least in those cases, meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject.

Right to data portability

In accordance with Art. 20 GDPR, you also have the right to receive the personal data concerning you that you have made available to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and to transmit this data to another controller without obstruction by us if the processing is based on consent pursuant to Art. 6(1) lit. a GDPR, Art. 9(2) lit. a GDPR or on a contract pursuant to Art. 6(1) lit. b GDPR and the processing is carried out using automated procedures.

Right to rectification

According to Art. 16 GDPR, you have the right to request us to correct any inaccurate personal data concerning you without undue delay. Furthermore, you have the right to request the completion of incomplete personal data—also by means of a supplementary declaration.

Right to erasure (“Right to be forgotten”)

According to Art. 17 GDPR, you have the right to demand that we delete personal data concerning you without undue delay.

This right is limited in particular when the processing is necessary to exercise the right to freedom of expression and information, to fulfil a legal obligation or to assert, exercise or defend legal claims.

Right to revoke given consent

According to Art. 7(3) GDPR you have the right to revoke your consent given to us at any time.

Right to restriction of processing

According to Art. 18 GDPR, you have the right to demand the restriction of the processing of your personal data if you dispute the accuracy of the personal data, if the processing is unlawful, if we no longer need the data for the purpose of processing or if you have filed an objection to the processing pursuant to Art. 21(1) GDPR, as long as it is not yet clear whether our legitimate interests outweigh yours.

Right to notification to recipients

If you request us to correct, delete or restrict the processing of your personal data in accordance with Articles 16, 17 and 18 respectively, we will notify all recipients to whom we have disclosed the relevant data in accordance with Art. 19 GDPR.

Right to object

According to Art. 21 GDPR, you have the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you which is necessary for the performance of a task in the public interest or because of our legitimate interest on the basis of Article 6(1) lit. e or f respectively, for reasons arising from your particular situation. We will then no longer process the personal data, unless we can prove compelling legitimate grounds for the processing, which outweigh your interests, rights and freedoms or the processing serves the assertion, exercise or defense of legal claims.

If we use your personal data for direct marketing, you have the right to object to such processing at any time. We will then no longer use your data for such purposes.

Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

According to Art. 77 GDPR, without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, you have the right of appeal to a supervisory authority, in particular in the member state of your usual place of residence, your workplace or the place of the alleged infringement, if you are of the opinion that the processing of personal data concerning you violates the GDPR.

The following supervisory authority is responsible for us:
